ORAL JUDGMENT

This Special Civil Application has been filed seeking direction to restrain the responden No.5-Municipality from removing the petitioners' cabins situated in the place popularly known as Aanand Bazar.

2. In view of the interim order passed on 31.8.1987, if alternative accommodation has yet not been provided to the petitioners, it will be open for the petitioners to make fresh representation to the respondent-Municipality. If such representation is made within a period of one month from today, the respondent-Municipality shall decide the same within a period of one month thereafter. The interim relief granted by this Court dated 31.8.1987, shall continue till then. In case the decision is adverse to the interest of the petitioners, the petitioners shall not be dispossessed for a further period of one month.

3. In view of the aforesaid, this Special Civil Application is disposed . Rule made absolute as indicated above. No order as to costs.
